Team Leagues:

Conventional Pistol: .22 Cal. Pistols open or optical sights, 2 pound minimum trigger pull weight. All firing is done unsupported with one hand, bullseye style. This is the standard NRA National Match Course of 30 shots fired at 50 feet on the B-2 and B-3 targets.

International Shooting Sports Federation (ISSF) Centerfire Pistol (1/2 course): .32 cal. to .45 cal. centerfire pistols. Iron sights only. All firing is done unsupported with one hand, bullseye style. Slow fire is 5 shots in 5 minutes on the B-33 target, 15 shots total. Rapid fire is 3 seconds per shot on the B-39 target for a total of 15 shots starting each shot with the gun down at a 45 degree angle. Or just visibly clear of shooting bench. Minimum trigger pull weight for centerfire guns is 3 pounds (or 1360grams). Barrel length is limited to 6 inches. Sight radius must not exceed 8.6 inches. Normally, .45 cal. Pistols are not permitted in ISU competition. The legal caliber range is .32 to .38. To make allowances for more people to compete the State Association has widened the caliber choices. We can do this because this is not a sanctioned match. I would still prefer that .45s be scored as .38s when possible.
