

Skowhegan Sportsman's Club Rifle Match

857 East River Road, Skowhegan, Maine

May 21, 2017- Register- 9:30 a.m., Begins: 10:00 a.m. -$15.00 p.p.

This will be an informal match with the intent of having fun.

It is very similar to a John Garand Match which are held by the Civilian Marksmanship Program

Rifles will be fired at 100 yards. Any caliber except 50 BMG and 338 Lapua may be fired

Shots will be fired on a N.R.A. SR-1 target.

There will be three categories:

1. Scoped bench shooting (Old Fart Class)
2. Scoped prone shooting. (Sniper Class)
3. Iron sights prone shooting. (Rifleman Class)

Course of fire:

5 sighting shots from the prone or bench position in five minutes.

15 shots slow fire from prone or bench position in 15 minutes

10 rounds of rapid fire from prone or bench position in 70 seconds. A reload will be required.

10 shots slow fire offhand for all categories.

Additional rules:

All standard safety rules apply

Benched rifles may be supported on the front by a sandbag or bipod. The butt of the rifle will be in the shooters shoulder without additional support.

Prone scoped rifles may be supported on the front by a sandbag or bipod. The butt of the rifle will be in the shooters shoulder without additional support.

Iron sighted prone rifles will not be allowed additional support other than that of a shooting sling.

Any ties will be settled offhand on a steel gong.

Any other rules will be made up as necessary.